THE

Church Missionary Society.

SALISBURY SQUARE,
LONDON, E.C.
June, 1898.

NOTICES.

The Society's Publications may be obtained through Local Booksellers, or direct from the Church Missionary House, Salisbury Square, London, E.C.

Arrangements are made, under certain conditions, for supplying Books, &c., "on Sale or Return," to Sales of Work, Anniversary and other special Gatherings, &c., with the object of disseminating Missionary Literature. Particulars on application.

Specimens of the Magazines, Papers for Gratuitous Distribution, &c., will be sent free on application.

The Society provides Missionary Boxes, Collecting Books, and Collecting Cards, free of charge. They should be procured from the Local Secretaries; but where this is not possible, they will be sent direct from the Church Missionary House. In all applications for a supply, the name of the Association for which they are required should be given; and where the applicant is not a Secretary or Treasurer of a Local Association, or a Clergyman, the application should be countersigned by a Member of the Society.

Expense and office labour will be saved if friends will kindly send remittances with their orders. This refers more particularly to small orders. In the case of large orders, or where the cost is uncertain, it is better to ask for an account to be sent before remitting.

BANKERS—WILLIAMS, DEACON, AND MANCHESTER AND SALFORD BANK, LIMITED, 20 Birchin Lane, London, E.C.

Orders should be addressed to the LAY SECRETARY; Cheques and P.O. Orders to be made payable to Mr. D. MARSHALL LANG.

Telegraphic Address:* "TESTIMONY, LONDON."

☞ The "post free" rates quoted in this List are based on inland book and parcel post rates, and apply mainly to the British Isles. When Magazines, Books, &c., are sent abroad additional postage is needed in many cases where the weight exceeds 1 lb.

Preface by the Rev. H. E. Fox.

SOME PRESS NOTICES.

"Twelve in number, these chapters present, somewhat in the form of interviews, accounts of Gospel effort in many lands; and the pages are bright with engravings. The book should inspire a deeper interest in Missions on the part of young and old who 'abide by the stuff' in the home-land."—Christian.

"Abundant material for interesting missionary addresses. . . . We cordially commend this little volume (which, by-the-bye, is beautifully illustrated) to all interested in missionary work."
Church Family Newspaper.

"One of the latest, most interesting, and most novel of the publications of the C.M.S. It is most interesting, because it consists of personal testimonies from the mission-field; it is most novel in its construction. The witnesses are literally placed in the witness- ox and personally cross-examined. . . . There are numerous good photographic illustrations, and the book is invaluable as a source of information and inspiration."
Evangelical Churchman.
